Re: FOIA Request NLRB-2023-000146

Dear Dawn Alcorn:

This is in response to your request, under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 U.S.C. § 552, received on October 18, 2022, in which you seek the September 9, 2022 Signed Amended Charge associated with a specifically named individual and filed against Asurion, Case No. 28-CA-295413. You assumed financial responsibility for the processing of your request in the amount of $50.00.

We acknowledged your request on October 18, 2022.

To the extent that you seek records related to a specifically named person, we cannot search for records using an individual's name. Conducting a search by an individual's name, without an NLRB case name or number, could constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy of that individual. FOIA case law establishes that individuals named in law enforcement investigatory files, including charging parties, witnesses, investigators, and informants, have such a protectible privacy interest. See, e.g., Davis v. Dep't of Justice, 968 F.2d 1276, 1281 (D.C. Cir. 1992) (persons including informants and third-parties mentioned in government files have a "strong" privacy interest in non-disclosure of their identities); Schrecker v. Dep't. of Justice, 349 F.3d 657, 661 (D.C. Cir. 2003). Because you provided the case number, we were able to conduct a search using that information.

A search of the Agency's electronic casehandling system, NxGen, has been conducted using the case number provided in your request. This search has located the requested record, which is attached. Please note that the signed amended charge was filed on November 1, 2022.

After a review, I have determined that portions of the attached record are exempt from disclosure under Exemptions 6 and 7(C) of the FOIA (5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6) and (b)(7)(C)). Specifically, redactions have been made to protect the privacy interests of individuals named in the record. These redactions were made pursuant to FOIA Exemption 6, which pertains to information the release of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, and FOIA Exemption 7(C), which pertains to records or information compiled for law enforcement purposes, the release of which could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6) and (b)(7)(C).

For the purpose of assessing fees, we have placed you in Category A, commercial use requester. This category refers to requests “from or on behalf of a person who seeks information for a use or purpose that furthers the commercial, trade, or profit interests of the requester or the person on whose behalf the request is made, which can include furthering those interests through litigation.” NLRB Rules and Regulations, 29 C.F.R. § 102.117(d)(1)(v). Consistent with this fee category, you “will be assessed charges to recover the full direct costs of searching for, reviewing for release, and duplicating the records sought.” 29 C.F.R. § 102.117(d)(2)(ii)(A). Charges are $9.25 per quarter-hour of professional time. 29 C.F.R. § 102.117(d)(2)(i).

Thirty minutes of professional time was expended in searching for and reviewing for release the requested material. Accordingly, please remit $18.50.
